*Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord,
whose hope is in the Lord.
He is like a tree planted beside the waters that stretches out its roots to the stream.*

A Letter from the Pastor

Dear Parish Family of Our Lady at St. Germaine,

The Beatitudes from Luke's Gospel invite us to imitate the heart of God. The Beatitudes teach us how to become more like God, how to reflect the goodness and beauty and truth in the heart of God. Blessed are the poor for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. In this God is praising those who rely on Him; those who are poor in spirit are clinging to God, are so totally united with God. Blessed are the meek are not those who have the goodwill to change a bad situation into better. They do not use violence because they do not return evil for evil. They are courageous and transform and recreate a situation peacefully. This is what we see in the life of Jesus. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied. Those who are righteous are in right relationship with God and our neighbors. God wants to bless us not only as individuals but wants to bless society to reflect more the heart of God.

Blessed are the merciful for they will be shown mercy. We all stand in need of God's mercy but instead of waiting for God to be merciful to us first this beatitude praises those who are merciful to others now. When we forgive we transform ourselves and others to become once more the image of God. Blessed are the clean of heart for they will see God. A heart that has been cleaned, has been made ready to receive God's holiness and His presence in their lives. Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called sons and daughters of God. We are peacemakers when we try to bring people closer to God and being a reflection of Christ, our peace.

Blessed are those persecuted for the sake of righteousness those who can identify with Christ through suffering for Him and the Gospel. We understand that through sharing in the Cross of Christ brings healing and peace.

If we want to know what the heart of God is like we have to look no further than the Beatitudes. The Beatitudes teach us how to become more like God, how to be reflections of the goodness of Jesus.

Sincerely,
Fr. Tom Cabala

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Many blessings are crocheted and knit into what we make through the prayers we say for every shawl. We have come to realize that there are endless possibilities for the use of Prayer Shawls. Whether there is a serious need or a special celebration the one common factor is that the comfort and healing power of prayer is sent with every shawl. Call 636-5060 to request one.

The information we gather will be used by St. Germaine solely for the purpose of education, marketing and development and will not be shared with any other outside source. If you, your family members, friends, neighbors, etc. are alumni, we are asking that you scan the QR code and complete the survey. Feel free to share with others. St. Peregrine Novena at St. Catherine of Alexandria

St. Peregrine is the patron saint for persons suffering from illnesses of all types in particular cancer. Saint Peregrine was healed of a cancerous ulcer on his leg which was considered beyond saving. The fame of this event in 1325 spread rapidly round the western Church.

Christians, and especially the sick, began to invoke his name and seek his intercession for relief of their suffering and even for a cure from sickness. The canonization of St.

Peregrine in 1726 increased people's devotion to him which spread to the universal Church.

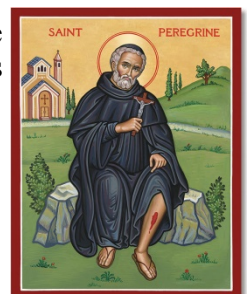

St. Catherine of Alexandria will begin offering a novena to St. Peregrine at 7p.m. in the church. The novena will be held for 9 Mondays. All are welcome to participate. The dates are below:

Feb. 14, Feb. 21, Feb. 28, March 7, March 14, and March 21, 2022

Please only enter through the doors on Kedvale. Handicap accessible ramp available.
