“To you who hear I say,
love your enemies,
do good to those who hate you,
bless those who curse you,
pray for those who mistreat you.”

Luke 6:27

A Letter from the Pastor

Dear Parish Family of Our Lady at St. Germaine,

“Love your enemies”. That’s a powerful message, and it turns out, one of the greatest challenges in life. The hatred we feel for other people, hatred that wells up inside of us and causes destructive actions within us. Is there anyone in your life who you hate or just can’t stand? Maybe someone who just irritates you to no end, who you resent and feel bitterness towards? Does it make you happy?

That the anger, hatred and resentment that lives within us is destructive and counterproductive to who we want to be as images of Christ.

What Does “Love Your Enemy” Mean? Who are these people? Maybe someone who has picked on you or called you names or disrespected you in some way, causing you anger ... maybe you hold a grudge against them.

To “Love Your Enemy” is to find it in your heart to put aside any wrongs, and to love them as a fellow human being. You don’t have to love them like you love your parents or children or best friend.

Why Should I Love My Enemy? After all, this person, my “enemy”, has done something horribly wrong to me. Why on earth would I want to love them? What do I get out of it? This isn’t an easy question, and I won’t be able to explore all the possible answers — that would take a book. But let’s look briefly at a few strong reasons:

You’ll be happier. If you have anger or resentment inside of you, even if you don’t think about it all the time, there will be times when it surfaces. And that makes you unhappy. It’s destructive, inwardly (it eats you up) and that anger also affects others around you, such as your loved ones, who are most likely affected in some way when you are angry even if the anger isn’t directed at them. Removing this anger from yourself is a positive thing, and it will make you happier overall and more Christ like.

Sincerely,
Fr. Tom Cabala

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Many blessings are crocheted and knit into what we make through the prayers we say for every shawl. We have come to realize that there are endless possibilities for the use of Prayer Shawls. Whether there is a serious need or a special celebration the one common factor is that the comfort and healing power of prayer is sent with every shawl.

Call 636-5060 to request one.

St. Peregrine Novena at St. Catherine of Alexandria

St. Peregrine is the patron saint for persons suffering from illnesses of all types in particular cancer. Saint Peregrine was healed of a cancerous ulcer on his leg which was considered beyond saving. The fame of this event in 1325 spread rapidly round the western Church.

Christians, and especially the sick, began to invoke his name and seek his intercession for relief of their suffering and even for a cure from sickness. The canonization of St.

Peregrine in 1726 increased people's devotion to him which spread to the universal Church.

St. Catherine of Alexandria will begin offering a novena to St. Peregrine at 7p.m. in the church. The novena will be held for 9 Mondays. All are welcome to participate.

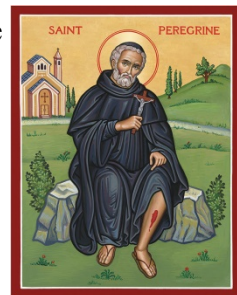

The dates are below:

Feb. 21, Feb. 28, March 7, March 14, and March 21, 2022

Please only enter through the doors on Kedvale. Handicap accessible ramp available.
