*O Lord our God,
how wonderful your name in all the earth!*

Psalm 8:2

A Letter from the Pastor

Dear Parish Family of Our Lady at St. Germaine,

God the Father so loved humanity that he entered in time and history as the second person of the Holy Trinity, Jesus the Son, to restore the Father's relationship with humanity. This loving relationship of the Father and the Son revealed to humanity by Christ's surrender on the cross which brought redemption to the world.

Out of this relationship of love between the Father and the Son emerges the Holy Spirit who gives life to all the poor of the world that is all of humanity. From the event of the cross; from the event in which God totally identifies himself with forsaken humanity, the Holy Spirit is poured forth upon the world, the Spirit of healing and reconciliation. It is the Holy Spirit who gifts the follower of Christ to be a reflection of his compassion.

This image of Christ must be lived, proclaimed, and shared with family, neighbor, stranger, and all, who are seeking the fullness of life and human dignity that can only be found in through the Holy Trinity.

Finally, we, as the Church, must show that redemption does not only mean reconciliation with God, redemption also means the healing of human beings and our communities.

The only response for us as Christ's followers to the love of God revealed to us through the Holy Trinity is to become reflections of compassion, mercy, and forgiveness as seen in Christ, who united himself with the poor and suffering.

Sincerely,
Fr. Tom Cabala

JUNE 15 - THE FEAST OF ST GERMAINE

When Fr. Walter Sheridan was looking for a patron saint in whom to entrust his newly founded parish, he made a truly inspired choice: St. Germaine du Pibrac.

For over forty years her gentle spirit has guided the life of this parish family.

Germaine never wrote a book, founded no religious order, never led an army, performed no public miracles, never went to school, and was unknown outside her small town. Yet a more remarkable and admirable saint does not exist. Her humble obedience to God, her willingness to suffer patiently, her ability to forgive, her devotion to the Eucharist, her faithfulness and simplicity are an inspiration to all who seek to use our simple gifts in the service of the Lord.

Shortly after founding St. Germaine Parish, Fr. Sheridan offered a prayer in the parish bulletin. I ask us to make it our prayer once again today:

St. Germaine, you who are now in resplendent, heavenly glory, remember us we beg you.
Help us to accept the challenges that lie ahead.
Pray for us, graciously hear our prayer,
and intercede in our behalf with God,
to whom you are so dear. Amen.

CALENDAR MEETING MONDAY, JUNE 13th @ 7pm

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY-

Many blessings are crocheted and knit into what we make through the prayers we say for every shawl. We have come to realize that there are endless possibilities for the use of Prayer Shawls. Whether there is a serious need or a special celebration the one common factor is that the comfort and healing power of prayer is sent with every shawl. Stop in Parish Center or call 636-5060 to request one.

THE STORY OF ST. GERMAINE

If you've ever known a child who was neglected or mistreated, you may find it impossible to consider the story of Saint Germaine of Pibrac without getting angry. It should be incredible that anybody – especially family – would treat a young girl the way she was treated.

The age-old Cinderella tale may come to mind, too – but not because Germaine had a glass slipper.

Germaine was born in the village of Pibrac, near Toulouse, France, around 1579. She died there in the first year of the 17th century – so her life was quite short, and, by some ways of reckoning, not at all sweet.

From the time she was born, she was sickly, somewhat deformed (her right hand was twisted and wouldn't work properly), and anything but pretty. She had a tubercular condition that affected her in several ways, including causing the glands on her neck to swell in a most unpleasant way. As if that weren't enough, her mother – who would no doubt have been able to find beauty in her little daughter even if no one else could – died when Germaine was very small.

Just like in the nursery story, her father remarried. Her stepmother couldn't stand the sight of her, eventually relegated her to the stable to sleep with only the animals for warmth, beat her with some regularity, and gave her almost nothing to eat – a little moldy bread or, at best, scraps from the family's table. It is said that Germaine learned to crawl in order to get to the dog's dish.

As she grew older, her job was to watch the sheep in the fields, even though there were ravenous wolves in the area. Still, this was probably better than being in the lap of the family, because her stepmother's children delighted in tormenting her – they put pitch in her clothing, ashes in her meager rations – and neither parent objected. (In fact, the stories say that their mother found their antics quite entertaining, and Germaine's father was too weak of character to interfere.)

She was almost always cold, hungry, and sick. Although she was still in her teens, Germaine coughed all winter, suffered from pain in her back, and walked stooped over like an old woman.

In the solitude of the out of doors, though, she learned to commune with her God. And when the bell rang for Mass, she always went joyously. Before leaving her flock, she would plant her shepherd's crook in the ground, pray that the sheep would be safe, and go straight to the church with a clear conscience.

Returning, she always found her charges safe and sound – none ever strayed, and no wolf attacked. Even before the overt miracles, the people of the village could not help but note her sincerity and religious fervor.

Miracles? The first miracle, of course, was one of attitude: Nowhere is it recorded that the wretchedness of her life caused Germaine to become hateful, or even to give vent to anger or anguish, like any normal mortal.

On top of that, this girl with very little to eat regularly shared her meager provisions with the poor. Naturally, this did not go over so well at home. One cold day Germaine took the crumbs left on the table after the family had eaten and was carrying them off to give to a poor beggar. Her stepmother screamed at her, accused her of stealing and hiding bread in her apron, and demanded that she open it. Obediently, she complied and – on this winter's day – what fell from its folds was not bread but the flowers of springtime.

This finally convinced her father that there was something very special about his otherwise unattractive daughter. He found the courage to command his wife to put an end to the abuse; and having seen such a wonder, she quickly relented.

Although Germaine was offered a real bed, she chose to keep her pallet in the stable. She did not keep it long. One morning when she was only 21 years old, she was found to have died in the night. Her patience through the years of neglect had seen her through and would be needed no more.

Germaine was buried, as was the custom in those days, inside the village church. Forty-three years later, when a relative was to be buried near her, the stones were removed and the grave-digger was amazed to find the body of a young woman in a state of perfect preservation. Some of the older residents identified the girl as Germaine Cousin. Miracle after miracle occurred, and in 1867 the neglected waif of Pibrac was inscribed in the list of saints by Pope Pius IX.

Annually thousands of pilgrims visit the parish church of Pibrac where the relics of St. Germaine are enshrined.

Germaine is the patron saint of the abandoned, of victims of child abuse, of disabled and handicapped people, and of orphans.

* * * * *

Saint Germaine, look down from Heaven and intercede for the many abused children in our world. Help them to sanctify their sufferings.

*Strengthen children who suffer the effects of living in broken families.
Protect those children who have been abandoned by their parents and live in the streets.*

Beg God's mercy on anyone who abuses children. Intercede for handicapped children and their parents.

Saint Germaine, you who suffered neglect and abuse so patiently, pray for us. Amen.

SUMMER MISSION APPEAL

Sri Lanka, known as Ceylon, is a small but beautiful island in the Indian Ocean. It is also named the pearl of the Indian Ocean. It is a Buddhist country with two languages, three ethnic groups, and four religions: Buddhism, Hinduism, Islam, and Christianity. Christianity was introduced to Sri Lanka in 1505 by the Portuguese. Christians are the minority of 7% of the total population, almost 21 million people in Sri Lanka. The diocese has an area of 2,854 sq. meters with a total population of 1,289,000. The diocese of Batticaloa is comprised of Hindus, Buddhists, Muslims, and Christians. Christians are a minority in Sri Lanka as well as Eastern Province. The number of Catholics in the diocese of Batticaloa diocese is 46,138 (3.5%) of the total population of the two civil districts of Batticaloa viz, Batticaloa and Ampara. The Catholics have spread out over 30 parishes served by nearly 39 diocesan priests and 16 religious priests. In addition, there are 93 religious sisters and brothers serving in the parishes, schools, hospitals, colleges, and universities. Additionally, we have more than five hundred catechists serving in the diocese.

Sri Lanka has gone through 30 years of civil war and natural disasters, i.e., tsunamis, cyclones, floods, drought, etc. The Batticaloa district is also most affected by the civil war, tsunami, hurricane, floods, and drought. This area is very much prone to health hazards, Dengue fever, Malaria fever, and diarrhea, due to which dozens of people die every year. Due to war, many civilians are still displaced from their dwellings, and many are rendered homeless. Today, hundreds of families don't have any information on their menfolk, whose whereabouts cannot be traced. We still have hundreds of women-headed families living in miserable conditions. Additionally, added more miseries with the attack of ISIS on the 21st Easter Sunday, April 2019, which killed 260 people and injured over 500 people in the country. The city of Batticaloa was also affected by this selfish religious attack.

The pandemic dealt a heavy blow to Sri Lanka's economy, which depends heavily on tourism and trade, with the government estimating a loss of $14 billion in the last two years. The present situation in our country is that depleted foreign reserves are driving Sri Lanka's worst economic crisis in decades. A currency crunch has hindered imports of fuel and other essentials overseas, including milk powder, cooking gas, and petrol. This situation is affected our diocese very severely; the diocese is struggling with maintaining priests and parishes. At this juncture, 80% of the parishes are situated in the village, and people are impoverished.

The diocese has drawn up projects this year to rebuild the faith and livelihood of the people, such as; providing dry rations and cooked meal support programs for the poor people in the village parishes, education support for children in village parishes, St. Joseph Vaz institute of theology; theological study for the laypeople and OZANAM Centre – maintenance for disabled children.

Challenges

- The diocese is receiving more vocations for the priesthood but has no means to provide food and accommodation for the new seminarians.
- The diocese needs more lay catechists and more training programs. The catechists are very poor and need some stipends for their voluntary work.
- Education of the children in supplementary classes.
- OZANAM Centre maintenance, disabled children.
- Churches destroyed by war/tsunami need to be rebuilt/renovated.
- Livelihood projects for widows.
- Healing and reconciliation programs and formation programs for youth.
- More re-evangelization programs are needed in border villages among multi-religious people.

We are in desperate need spiritually and financially to implement these projects. We humbly request you to consider our request for a good cause in the diocese of Batticaloa, Sri Lanka.

The Athletic Association is always looking for help; next year, we are looking for help in the following areas:

Coaches/Assistant Coaches – Speak to any of the current coaches or athletic board members about the time commitment and other responsibilities.

Gym Supervisors – The gym supervisor is an adult who is willing to be responsible for supervising activities in the Activity Center on a rotating basis. A schedule is established at the beginning of each season. Shifts are approximately 3 hours long. Gym supervisors are not responsible for coaching, but rather for the physical environment of the Activity Center such as set up of equipment and clean up. This is a position that we are lacking volunteers in. So, if you are interested, please speak with someone.

Fundraising Events – The Board continues to look for new ideas for fundraisers and for volunteers to carry out these events.

If you feel that you would be able to help with any of these tasks, please contact any members of the Athletic Board or call 708-636-5060.

On Wednesday, May 18th, the Athletic Association held their annual awards banquet for 7th & 8th grade athletes. What a great night was had by all.

Jake Moran was our guest speaker for the students. Jake graduated from St. Germaine Class of 2013 and is now a teacher and coach at Richards High School. Jake shared his journey of athletics and life with the kids and parents. Thank you Jake for your time!

We also presented Dan Farrell with the Tom E. Sullivan Award. We would like to include the introduction, written by Pat O'Shea, that was read that night!

We are so lucky and blessed to have such wonderful people and their families as part of our Parish family.

"Dan Farrell was with the Athletic board at St. Germaine for 22 years from 1976-1998, during this time he started the "Las Vegas Night" fundraiser. This fundraiser allowed for all the children of St. Germaine to participate in sports leagues, have new equipment, and get new uniforms. Imagine not having to pay additional money for your children to participate in sports at St. Germaine. It was through this fundraising effort that allowed this at zero cost to families. At the height of this fundraiser his peers on the board provided a plaque to Dan that dubbed him "Mr. Las Vegas".

In addition to Las Vegas night, Dan also served on the board when the vision and fundraising efforts to have this gymnasium built became a reality. Sports teams at St. Germaine started playing in their own building in 1987. Prior to that practices were held in the basement of the school or at D123 buildings. Although the gym has undergone some changes since it first opened its doors it was men like Dan Farrell that allowed the children of St. Germaine to have their own place to call home.

On behalf on the Athletic board it is my privilege and honor to present Dan Farrell with the 2022 Tom Sullivan award.

Congratulations Dan !"
