“Do not be afraid; you are worth more than many

A Letter from the Pastor

Dear Parish Family of Our Lady at St. Germaine,

You will notice that Jesus is never far from the supper table. That is because he hungers for us to be one with him at the Eucharist table and his eternal table in the kingdom of heaven.

At the table, we see Jesus constantly challenging the people to repent and reform, but at the same time, he also comforts the people with his teachings and healings. But, it is especially the table actions of Jesus that either comfort or upset the people at the table with him.

He invites and welcomes sinners and the socially outcast of his time, for whatever reason, to sit with him and break bread with him. Jesus showed no preference or prejudice, he treated all with dignity and respect.

He showed forgiveness to all, at the same time reminding all at the table, the self-righteous or those called sinners by them, that they were in need of God's forgiveness.

As Jesus touched the hearts of all through his welcoming, hospitality and understanding, we as his followers are expected to do the same.

As we practice these very Christian virtues as Jesus practiced them, not only will the relationship of others with Jesus change, so will our relationship with Christ and those we welcome change for good table fellowship at Christ's table and our own tables.

Sincerely,

PARISH CENTER SUMMER HOURS

FEEL GOD'S LOVE FOR YOU AND GROW IN DEEPER LOVE FOR HIM

"In the Mass and in Eucharistic Adoration we meet the merciful love of God that passes through the Heart of Jesus Christ." – St. John Paul II

Sometimes I get so caught up in taking care of my family's needs that, by the end of the day, I'm spent – wiped out, with nothing left to give anyone, let alone God. My spiritual director keeps telling me, "God favors you" or "You are His beloved daughter," but I don't really feel that in my heart. I think it's because I'm too tired to allow myself to just bask in His love for me.

When our oldest daughter, Felicity, was in religious education last year, our parish offered Eucharistic Adoration on the same evening. I would drop Felicity off and stay at church for the next hour-and-a-half, sitting before Jesus who was exposed in love, ready to give me what I was able to receive.

At first, it was difficult. I found my thoughts wandering and was fraught with worry about all the things I "should" be doing instead. But I disciplined myself to sit before Him and just allow Him to love me. The tears would often follow – tears of exhaustion, of gratitude, of peace. If you long to be loved and filled with God's endless mercy; if you need your cup to overflow with healing and hope, then turn to Him in Eucharistic Adoration.

OBTAIN ETERNITY FOR TORMENTED SOULS

"The Eucharist bathes tormented souls in light and love." – St. Bernadette Soubirous

As a grief author, I get a lot of comments about assurance of heaven for their deceased loved ones. Of course, we cannot presume to know exactly if a soul is in heaven, hell, or purgatory (unless canonized by the Church, of course), but we can turn to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament to beckon His mercy upon their souls. Many saints have written or spoken about the power of Eucharistic Adoration in obtaining salvation for tormented souls. When we reach out to Jesus by making the effort to visit Him in the many tabernacles we pass throughout our days, He responds with an outpouring of grace, especially for those who have died or are dying. While you are quietly praying, offer a Chaplet of Divine Mercy for the souls in most need, and name your deceased loved ones with each bead offered.

ADORATION IS POWERFUL PROTECTION AGAINST SPIRITUAL ATTACK

"Make frequent visits to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and the devil will be powerless against you." – St. John Bosco
It's no secret that spiritual attack intensifies as we grow closer to God. Often, when you are approaching a spiritual breakthrough or perhaps are readying yourself for a mission trip with the teens at your parish; initiating a weekly family rosary; volunteering at your local homeless shelter; or a number of other holy acts that will deepen your relationship with God, the backlash from the enemy increases. Why is this? In some cases, it's because Satan obviously wants us to fall. He knows our weak spots and problem areas, so he preys upon the areas of our life where we are making the most effort to improve or repair our love for God. Run to Jesus in Eucharistic Adoration, despite the adversary's attempts to thwart your getting there, and beg for protection against these attacks. You will regain renewed vigor to persevere through your current trials if you do.

HOLY HOURS STRENGTHEN FAMILY LIFE

"Jesus has made Himself the Bread of Life to give us life. Night and day, He is there. If you really want to grow in love, come back to the Eucharist, come back to that Adoration." – St. Teresa of Calcutta

Family division is highly common in our modern era. I've never met a person who did not have some sort of strife, rift in relationships, or estrangements going on in their immediate or extended families. Obviously, we see divorce as commonplace, as well as siblings who refuse to communicate – perhaps for decades – among some of the issues facing families today. Years ago, I made a retreat with my family of origin (before I was married with my own kids), and my mom emerged from a session of spiritual direction from one of the resident priests, beaming mischievously. "Fr. Norbert told me that 'your family will be the means of your sanctification,'" she told me. I've thought about that statement off and on throughout these years, and it seems to be a universal message: God gives us each member of our family, not to annoy us or cause permanent brokenness, but instead to help us grow in holiness. Some of the most difficult people to live with are meant to give us more opportunities to practice patience, kindness, and charity.

Take your family and all its complicated troubles to Jesus in Eucharistic Adoration. He will extend the grace beyond you to all your loved ones.

YOU WILL GAIN PEACE AND CLARITY

"How sweet and full of comfort are the moments spent before the Blessed Sacrament! Are you in trouble? Come and throw yourself at his feet." – St. John Vianney

Most people struggle with restlessness and confusion. Again, these are meant to be clouds of diversion from the enemy. His tactics are to lead us away from finding clarity in our mission and purpose in life by leading us to stall and stumble far before we even begin. During the many crossroads of your life, especially if they deal with major life decisions, bring every question to Eucharistic Adoration. Jesus will take each one and grant you the clarity you need – sometimes in a quiet inspiration of the heart, sometimes after you open your Bible or hear a song – but the answer will be so obvious to you that your soul will be flooded with peace. Regardless of how or when you decide to visit Jesus in Eucharistic Adoration, the key is to simply begin somewhere. It doesn't have to be entire Holy Hour right away, but start with ten or fifteen minutes and build the habit on a weekly or monthly basis. Make it a family affair and go for dinner or ice cream afterwards. Jesus is pleased with everything you give Him, no matter how small, and will bless you abundantly.

HAVE YOU TRIED THE MANNA PROGRAM?

The Manna Program is one of the school's most successful fundraisers. Families that participate purchase gift cards from local vendors who rebate a portion of the purchase price to the school. For example, if a family purchases a $100 Jewel card, they receive the full $100. Jewel rebates about 4% to the school ($4.00). So that rebate of 4% then gets split between the school and the family. That can be used for tuition for School, Religious Education or high school tuition. Even if you try using it for groceries and gas, it would help out! The beauty of the program is that it provides "free money" from sources outside of the parish with no extra expenses to anyone. During the 2021-2022 school year, the total rebates from all vendors was $25,860.00.

Manna certificates are sold throughout the summer from 9:00am until 12:00pm in the school office on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursdays. The office will be closed the week of July 4th. The program is open to everyone in the parish and provides a huge support to the school budget. For more information, contact the school office at 708-425-6063.

There is a Manna order form on the website that you can fill out, drop and church with a check and schedule a pick up.

Archdiocese of Chicago Requirements for Volunteers—Get Prepared !!

For all Parents or Parishioners who would like to Volunteer within the Church, School or Parish (including coaches) in the upcoming year, please contact the Site Administrator, Melissa Barba

Please provide your name, phone number or email, and what position you are hoping to do as a volunteer within our school or parish.

Any questions or concerns please email
mbarba@archchicago.org or call the Parish Center at 708-636-5060

The Athletic Association is always looking for help; next year, we are looking for help in the following areas:

Coaches/Assistant Coaches – Speak to any of the current coaches or athletic board members about the time commitment and other responsibilities.

Gym Supervisors – The gym supervisor is an adult who is willing to be responsible for supervising activities in the Activity Center on a rotating basis. A schedule is established at the beginning of each season. Shifts are approximately 3 hours long. Gym supervisors are not responsible for coaching, but rather for the physical environment of the Activity Center such as set up of equipment and clean up. This is a position that we are lacking volunteers in. So, if you are interested, please speak with someone.

Fundraising Events – The Board continues to look for new ideas for fundraisers and for volunteers to carry out these events.

If you feel that you would be able to help with any of these tasks, please contact any members of the Athletic Board or call 708-636-5060.

ATTENTION: ALL ORGANIZATIONS

As we begin to “clean up” for summer. We ask that you go through any and all storage areas and help us stay organized.

We ask that you take inventory of what you have and need. Then please label all boxes and containers “6/23” and initial who cleaned up.

If you have “community supplies” please label.
