A Letter from the Pastor

Dear Parish Family of Our Lady at St. Germaine,

At my wedding rehearsals, I always ask the bride and groom, “who are you trusting with the rings?” The answer almost always comes back, “the best man,” is entrusted with the rings. But, on one occasion the bride told me, “The maid of honor, my sister. I don’t trust the best man.” The next day the wedding was delayed for about thirty or forty minutes, while the bridal party searched for the misplaced rings.

God has invited us to the banquet of eternal life and invites us to a foretaste of that banquet each weekend. He has also given us the gift of free will to accept or reject the invitation. He affords us every opportunity to accept the invitation; He does not let us decline very easily with all sorts of unacceptable, petty excuses. God doesn’t easily accept our rejection. That is why he sent his Son among us, to personally invite us to the Eucharistic banquet and to the banquet in the kingdom of heaven.

But God also expects us to be properly clothed for the banquet. Recently, I dined at a very fine restaurant, linen table clothes, waiters in tuxedos, and all the fancy trappings. Sitting across from us, there was a table of eight wearing blue jeans and baseball caps; they weren’t even Cubs or Sox caps. And so, my host asked for a change of tables.

The garment the Lord asks us to wear at the banquet that He is hosting is an open heart that trusts in His Son, Jesus, who nourishes with love, clothes us in peace, and quenches our thirsts for happiness.

Sincerely,

Rev. Thomas S. Cabelq

Timmy's Angels

It's starting to get colder and Timmy's Angels is having their annual coat drive. We need new or gently used coats for men and women. We have had families reach out for coats for their kids this year. We will take very gently used and very good condition coats for children. We prefer new coats for kids if possible. Any colors, all sizes, boys and girls. We will have a box at church to drop off coats. All coats must be put in plastic bags. The coat drive will run from now until November 25th.

You can also drop off at Hometown Co-op office 4704 W. 87th Pl. in Hometown or at my house 8747 S. Cicero, Hometown.

If you are a family in need or know a family in need please reach out to Sue Byrne. Call or text me at 708-209-7419 with any questions. Timmy's Angels thanks you all for your support. We couldn't do what we do without you. Thank you. Stay well and God Bless.

How Witnessing Domestic Violence Affects Children.

Preschoolers who witness domestic violence may revert to the habits of younger children: thumb sucking, bedwetting, increased crying, and whining.

School-aged children can develop anti-social traits, struggle with guilt over the abuse witnessed and take on the blame for the abuse their parent deals with. Domestic violence has the ability to cause post-traumatic stress disorder in children that are raised around it.

The trauma of domestic violence is enough to cause dangerous changes in the developing brains of children, including nightmares, changes in sleep patterns, anger, irritability, difficulty concentrating.

Routinely witnessing domestic violence places children at a high risk of developing depression, sadness, concentration issues into adulthood. In some instances, children that live in abusive households are also likely to fall victim to this treatment themselves.

If you are a victim of domestic violence and in immediate danger, call 911.

If you or someone you know is a victim of domestic violence, help is available by contacting the 24/7 emergency hotlines at either one of these community agencies:
